CEO of company behind MyFax, my1voice and Campaigner to present profile of company to some of RBC's premier institutional clients and venture capitalists

Ottawa (October 27, 2008) - Protus, the fast-growing technology company whose product offerings include the MyFax Internet fax service, my1voice virtual PBX service, and Campaigner opt-in e-mail marketing service, today announced that company chief executive officer Joseph Nour will be presenting at the Royal Bank of Canada (RBC) Capital Markets 2008 Growth Conference 5.0. The event, which was developed to bring growth companies in the technology and communications sectors together with RBC Capital Markets' premier institutional clients and venture capitalists, will be held on Tuesday, October 28, 2008 at the MaRS Discovery Centre in Toronto.

In his presentation, Nour will show the steps Protus has taken to become one of the leading Software-as-a-Service (SaaS) technology providers. The presentation will be followed by a question-and-answer session where attendees can delve in more depth into the company, its business model, and its leadership.

Protus has seen considerable growth in the past few years. The company's MyFax service is now the fastest-growing Internet fax service in the world. The addition of my1voice and Campaigner earlier this year has now created a one-stop shop for small and medium businesses, for both inbound and outbound communications services. In June, the company was named to the PROFIT 100 ranking of Canada's fastest-growing companies by PROFIT Magazine for the sixth consecutive year.

"Protus has a credible history of success and achievements and our growing portfolio of SaaS products positions the company for a successful future," said Nour. "It's great to be part of such a high-profile event and we are excited to have the opportunity to present our story to this audience."
