

Protus Awarded Product of the Year Award from Communications Solutions Magazine

MyFax Internet fax service and my1voice virtual phone service recognized for outstanding innovation

Ottawa, Ontario (July 14, 2010) - Protus, provider of the highest quality software-as-a-service (SaaS) communications tools for small-to-medium businesses and enterprise organizations, today announced that Technology Marketing Corporation (TMC) has honored MyFax and my1voice with the Communications Solutions 2009 Product of the Year Award. MyFax is the world's fastest-growing internet fax service, enabling users to manage their fax communication and corresponding document management workflow more efficiently and at a lower cost than traditional fax servers. my1voice is a cost effective, feature-rich virtual phone service that helps small businesses improve direct communications with customers and prospects. The service provides a variety of features like a virtual receptionist and smart call forwarding that previously were only available to large enterprises that could afford expensive phone systems.

"Protus has been recognized with a 2009 Product of the Year Award for the company's admirable efforts in the advancement of voice and data communications," said Rich Tehrani, CEO, TMC. "Both MyFax and my1voice provide clear benefits for their customers, resulting in solid ROI for the companies using these products. Congratulations to the entire team at Protus."

The Communications Solutions Product of the Year Award recognizes the vision, leadership, and thoroughness that are characteristics of the prestigious award. The most innovative products and services brought to the market from March 2008 through March 2009 were chosen as winners of the Communications Solutions Product of the Year Award.

"We are thrilled to receive this award for a sixth consecutive year," said Joseph Nour, CEO of Protus. "Protus is committed to providing the most innovative products for small business, and this honor reinforces our mission to provide tools that make small business daily operations more efficient and cost-effective."
